5 | BURSARY APPLICATION

Three US$400 bursaries are available per course to reduce the course fee from US$595 to US$195 for qualified applicants. Bursaries are intended to support the capacity building of individuals living or working in low income countries who genuinely do not have access to means to pay the full course fees.

To apply, complete the additional fields below. Selected applicants will be contacted directly and payment arrangements will be made at that time. Your application for this course will not be processed until your bursary application has been confirmed and remaining payment has been received.

Please tick the boxes below to indicate that you meet the following requirements to qualify for a bursary:

☐ I live or work in a country other than a “High Income Economy Country” as defined by the World Bank (list available at <http://data.worldbank.org/about/country-and-lending-groups>).

☐ I will pay the remaining course fee myself. Bursaries cannot be awarded to participants for whom an employer, sponsor, or client will be paying the course fee, either directly or by reimbursement.

☐ I require financial support to participate in the course. Provide an approximately 150-word statement below explaining how you qualify and why you need financial support to take the course.

6 | SUBMIT

Submit the following two items via email to tanya@iaia.org by the specified application deadline:
